The Department of English, NAM College, Kallikkandy organized a guest lecture in the subject of Research Methodology on 21 December, 2022 at 10.00 am at the Seminar Hall. The Resource person was Sudeep SD, Assistant Professor and Head in the Department of English, Govt. College, Nadapuram. The session was attended by the students of final year B.A. English.

The Programme began with Asst. Prof. Mr. Nasrullah Mambrol introducing the resource person. Dr. Majeesh. T., Principal, NAM College, Kallikkandy inaugurated the session. Sudeep SD actively interacted with the students on the topic of 'Research Methodology'. He discussed the aims of conducting research, what research is and is not, the difference between methods and methodology. Research methods may be understood as all techniques used by the researchers during the course of studying the research problem. Research methodology involves various steps generally adopted by a researcher in studying the research problem along with the logic behind them. He also covered the deductive and inductive approaches adopted in research.

The resource person also spoke about the components of a theory in research i.e. What, How and Why and the importance of boundary conditions i.e. Who, Where and When. Then he went on to speak about the process involved in research in greater detail.

The resource person stressed on the importance of review of literature i.e. why it is important, why a researcher should not stop and continue reviewing the existing literature till the time of data collection. He also gave his insights on how to review the existing literature in a particular area of research, and how to identify the research problem and research gap.

Dr. Sudeep SD's presentation concluded with an interactive session with the students. The Programme ended with a vote of thanks proposed by Ms. Naja Usman, student of final B.A. English. A total of 33 students participated in the event.

A workshop on Film Studies “Moving Images” was held on 24th January 2023 from 9.30 am to 1.30 pm. It was organised by the PG Department of English . The purpose of the session was to make students understand the film studies course and to inculcate critical thinking with regard to cinema. Film is an artistic medium which always has a close connection with our life or it reflects society. We all watch movies and enjoy them. It's not merely a medium of entertainment but it has a vast history of understanding and the role it plays in society. Film studies in particular enable the students to develop the necessary skills to critically analyse and study film as artworks and social texts. It encourages students to explore different ways of watching and understanding the political, cultural and aesthetic nuances of film making. Ms Shilpa S, coordinator of MA English welcomed the audience and the Head of the Department of English Ms Priya Nair inaugurated the session. Mr. Nasrullah Mambrol, faculty of Department of English rendered the felicitation. The session was handled by Ms. Indhu VS, writer/ Director of the movie 19(1)(a) and award winner at IFFK. The session was an interactive exchange of ideas. Ms. Indhu shared details of her experiences as a director. She also provided a simple, informal explanation of the basic cinematic techniques in language intelligible to the audience of youngsters.
